

Ayman Al-Tawil

Vice President - Governance and Compliance

Ayman Al-Tawil is the Vice President of Governance & Compliance at Saudi Arabian Military Industries (SAMI). He leads the governance and compliance at SAMI, develops the proper Corporate Governance principles and sets the frame work along with its related policies and procedures using the business best practices and methodologies to ensure SAMI's adherence to the rules and regulations set by the regulators. He is a current Board Member at SABB Takaful. He has over 16 years of experience in Corporate Governance & Compliance as he previously served as the Corporate Governance, Compliance and Legal Director at Saudi Ground Services (SGS) as well as several key executive positions in various financial institutions and shareholding companies listed in Capital Market Authority.